

Western Region Captive Insurance Conference
2010 Western Captive Round-up

Arizona Biltmore Resort
Phoenix, Arizona
April 5 – 8, 2010

Sponsorships and Exhibit Space Available!

Our press release went out a short time ago announcing the inaugural 2010 Western Captive Round-up, and it sure stirred up a lot of interest!

If you're a captive manager, service provider, or captive owner/risk manager looking to leverage your precious 2010 expense dollars, here's a great opportunity for your company to gain maximum impact at a minimal cost.

With AzCIA and UCIA now collaborating and focusing on a western region event, members of the captive community will be able to increase their educational and networking opportunities, gain greater visibility and access to a larger number of prospective clients and captive experts, while minimizing the cost of attending multiple conferences to do so.

The 2010 Western Captive Round-up provides an excellent opportunity to build new relationships and expand existing ones by attracting a larger number of captive professionals overall. Our superior educational programs will be thought-provoking and designed with captive owners and risk managers in mind. That is how we plan to succeed in this collaborative effort.

Sign up today to Sponsor or Exhibit at the 2010 Western Captive Round-up!

Besides the Diamond and Platinum Sponsorships (that come with free exhibit space and free registrations), there's an Industry Leader Sponsorship category created for law firms, captive owners, and other professionals wanting to show support for the captive industry and their respective captive associations.

To download the Sponsorship/Exhibitor Reservation Form and Exhibit Hall Diagram, just click on the appropriate link and print off the forms. Complete the form and fax or scan/email it to Adrienne Fjerstad at the WRCIC office (contact information on the form) and she will invoice you for your selection. Where appropriate, you will be contacted for your booth selection. Diamond and Platinum Sponsors receive first choice of exhibit spaces and then those who are "Exhibitors Only" will be contacted to make their selection. Sponsorship items and exhibit spaces will be awarded on a first-come first-serve basis in accordance with sponsorship level priority.

Sign up today for this exciting and unique regional captive event! With a limited number of sponsorship items and exhibit spaces available, you don't want to miss out. If you have any questions, call the WRCIC Office at 952.928.4658, or contact Adrienne Fjerstad at afjerstad@harringtoncompany.com.
